

A scenic landscape photograph of the Lake District, featuring a lake nestled between green hills and mountains under a bright, hazy sky with sun rays. The text 'LAKE DISTRICT MUSIC SUMMER FESTIVAL' is overlaid in large white letters, with '1 - 10 AUGUST 2025' below it.

LAKE DISTRICT MUSIC SUMMER FESTIVAL

1 - 10 AUGUST 2025

Want to work at a classical music festival?

We're looking for ARTIST MANAGERS to join this year's Festival Team!

As one of two Artist Managers, you will work as part of the LDM Festival Team, which consists of a Production Manager, Production Coordinator, two Event Managers and four Event Assistants.

This role offers you the opportunity to be responsible for:

- Contacting all artists, and agents, prior to their arrival, confirming arrival times and transportation
- Meeting and greeting artists on arrival
- Attending all pre-concert rehearsals and providing assistance to the artists
- Providing a liaison point between the artists and Production Manager on technical issues
- Ensuring artists are provided with necessary transport to and from venues (where agreed)
- Liaising with the Event Manager on performance times to ensure concerts run to schedule
- Acting as Stage Manager for performances, including stage set-up
- Providing support and assistance to other members of the Festival Team to ensure the smooth and efficient running of the festival

This position is ideal for those wishing to develop their experience working hands-on in the arts sector. Applicants are required to be available for the entirety of the period covering from lunchtime Tuesday 29 July until the afternoon of Monday 11 August 2025.

Artist managers will receive a fee of £1,000 in return for their services during the festival. Accommodation will be provided at the University of Cumbria campus in Ambleside, breakfast is provided, and expenses are paid. All team members will receive first aid training (gaining a qualification valid for 3 years).

A knowledge of classical music, having a full driving licence and access to a vehicle are all preferable, but not necessarily essential. Please include this information in your application.

To apply, please send your CV and a covering email to josh@ldsm.org.uk
Application deadline: Friday 6 June (with interviews 11-13 June by Zoom)